Step 1

Checking whether your goods comply with our Policy

Did you know that you can transport dangerous goods with LeShuttle Freight?

- Please be aware that dangerous goods in Limited Quantities DO NOT need to be declared in advance or on arrival.
- Even if your vehicle does not need orange plates to travel on the road, you will still need to make a declaration if you have dangerous goods paperwork.
- As a LeShuttle Freight account holder, simply log on to your account via www.eurotunnelfreight.com which will enable you to:
 - > Search on a UN number
 - > Download our dangerous goods guide.
 - > Declare your dangerous goods.
- You can also check the compliance of your dangerous goods by contacting the Freight Commercial Department.

Step 2

Checking whether your goods comply with our Policy

- Prior to your vehicle's arrival it is your responsibility to ensure that your driver has a full dangerous goods declaration which includes the following information:
 - UN number
 - Current ADR references (Class, Packing Group & Classification Code, if required)
 - Proper Shipping Name of goods carried (including their volume or weight)
 - Details of packaging (number and description)
 - Quantity (net / gross mass as appropriate)
- Please ensure that your drivers are aware that they need to make a dangerous goods declaration upon arrival at Check-in.
- Non declaration or incorrect paperwork may result in delays or refusal to travel.

Step 3

Checking whether your goods comply with our Policy

- If you make an online booking, you can declare that the vehicle is transporting dangerous goods.

Account holders

Is your vehicle transporting dangerous goods *?

Please select

- No
- Yes, Calais-Folkestone
- Yes, Folkestone-Calais
- Yes, Both direction

Non-account holders

Will the vehicle contain any dangerous goods? *

Please select

- No
- Yes, from Calais to Folkestone
- Yes, from Folkestone to Calais
- Yes, both direction

- If you use a vehicle list as a method of travel or are paying for your crossing upon arrival, it is your driver's responsibility to declare the transport of dangerous goods at Check-in.

Step 4

Checking whether your goods comply with our Policy

- Upon arrival your driver will see this screen:

- Your driver will need to select “YES” to declare that they are transporting dangerous goods.
- They will then be re-directed to the Freight Driver Information Centre.
- The driver must report to the Customer Service Agent inside the building, who will then check the paperwork against Eurotunnel’s dangerous goods policy.
- An external check of the vehicle will be carried out and a copy of the dangerous goods paperwork will be taken.

Step 5

Checking whether your goods comply with our Policy

- Once authorised, the driver will be issued with a sticker showing a unique reference which must be visible on the windscreen.
- We remind you that your driver must declare dangerous goods accompanied with paperwork, unless transporting in Limited Quantities.
- Please ensure that your driver is aware of the following guide here.
